Re: Teeman v. Gilmartin and Archer / Case No. 1:07-cv-09676-HB

Dear Judge Baer:

I am a principal of Judd Burstein, P.C., attorneys for Plaintiff Susan Teeman ("Plaintiff") in the above-referenced action.

I am writing to you, with the consent of Jon Whitcomb, attorney for Defendants, Marybeth Gilmartin and Amy Archer (collectively "Defendants"), respectfully to request that the briefing schedule of Defendants' pending motion to dismiss and/or stay the proceedings and to compel arbitration ("Pending Motion") be modified.

This request is made necessary, as Plaintiff is currently in the process of securing new counsel to represent her in the above-referenced action. Accordingly, in order to afford Plaintiff's incoming counsel an opportunity to submit an opposition to the Pending Motion, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the due date for Plaintiff's opposition to the Pending Motion, which is currently November 29, 2007, be adjourned to twenty days (20) from the date Plaintiff retains new counsel, or December 21, 2007, whichever is earlier.
